

Majestic, Losers Shades Of Hell

(Andersson / Espinoza)

I'm racing from this power yesterday is gone
Love the way you feel the pain

Your face is filled with Shadows from this nasty war Every breath is emptiness

Mercy is...
Waiting for some bridges to the night
Heaven is strong

This is the way the sadness
drowns you with eternal light
You never know when darkness fades

I need an angel
just to share my sacredness Share the fictions on my life

The sunrise from my naked body heart and soul Glistens all the way to hell

Mercy is...
Waiting for some bridges to the night
Heaven is strong

This is the way the sadness
drowns you with eternal light
You might be lonesome known as losers shades of hell

Visions of satisfaction take these broken wings All there is left is blood and losers shades of hell
