

Majestic, Seekers Battlefield

(Andersson)

I'm moving fast like a hurricane
Into the night I'm the bringer of your evil
Searching for freedom I'd known before
No one to blame
I'm the seeker of the nighttime

Sailing on Seas once again
Crossing my spirits of love
Oceans on wings forever free

Even when you are gone...
Now you're gone

I spread my seed trough the naked wind
I'm rolling stones
Pushing people trough the daylights
My head is aching my wind is Stressed
I'm in the land of the never-ending sorrow

Gather their souls far away
Seeds of my war growing strong
Angels of hell is in my veins

Even when you are gone...
Now you're gone...
