

Make Up Your Mind, Make Up Your Mind lay on the couch, feed your big fat belly see the same shit, when you turn on the telly. Murder, sex, violence, is all that you find, this is the telly satan likes to rule, want to take your soul betray and lies, to reach his goal, a world wide web, and you're the fly don't get trapped, cause it's hard to see goodbye

Make up your mind, do you know were you goanna go The choice is yours, death is not the end of the show Make up your mind, Jesus loves you, this I know Surrender to him, and eternal joy will be yours

Every day live, you see it passing by.
Sleep, eat, work, until the day you'll die maybe it ends there, maybe heaven is a lie, but what if it isn't, isn't it wise to wonder why. I bat you living eighty years, end up in a resort, without a purpose or a clue, where your live is going to, don't waste your live, you'll need a goal to go

All right listen up, time to learn a lesson face life and face the reason, why you're down here on earth, it may sound absurd, but it is the truth, that Jesus died for you. The
