

Make Up Your Mind, The Wind Blows A Lovesong

Verse1:

Can anyone hear these cries,
Of boys lost in a dream,
Their calling out to a face,
But they don't got a name.

Pre-Chorus:

It's almost after midnight,
Can you imagine that there is one girl awake,
She opened up all here windows,
She's been waiting for something,
All day...

Chorus:

Their thoughts go out,
To a girl in this song,
She's holding her breath to hear,
If the wind blows a love song,
She sits in a room,
On a chair by the window,
Listening to the songs they wrote,
And what they need to let go.

Verse2:

It's one chance in a lifetime,
When you meet her one day,
You will only have one shot,
If you got something to say.
