

Makeshift Romeo, Apology

To my ray of sunshine
You're the only thing
That gets me by
And when I think of you
I know in my heart that I
Never tried from the start

These feelings I have for you
Will never fade away
I just can't be without you
So this is the day
You'll hear me say

I was wrong, all along
Now I'm tryin' to change
And I'm finally starting to see
It's my fault
That you're gone
And this is my apology

I remember the first time
That I looked into your eyes
I couldn't believe you were mine
Nw I'm empty inside
How could I leave you behind?

These feelings I have for you
Will never fade away
I just can't be without you
Now I realize that I wasn't right

I was wrong, all along
Now I'm tryin' to change
And I'm finally starting to see
It's my fault
That you're gone
And this is my apology

Now I know
How things should be
I'll do anything
You mean everything to me.
Please give me one more chance
To be with you again

I was wrong, all along
Now I'm tryin' to change
And I'm finally starting to see
It's my fault (it's my fault)
That you're gone
(That you're gone)
And this is my apology
(Apology)

I was wrong
(I was wrong)
Now I'm tryin' to say
That I'm sorry
Can you forgive me?
(Forgive me)
It's my fault
(It's my fault)
That you're gone
(That you're gone)

And this is my apology
(Apology)

To my ray of sunshine
This is my apology
