

Makeshift Romeo, Over Now

I sit around and think
About how things were
I'm looking for a cure for
This empty space in my heart
I spend too much time
Thinking about the past
And why it didn't last,
And it tears me apart

Yesterday
I see a picture of a face
A memory
That just won't fade away

I know I tried
To hold on to this life
For such a long time
But that's over now

The past is gone
But I've been holding on
For such a long time
But that's over now
It's over now

So now I'm thinking
About how things are
And how we got this far
Sometimes I can't believe
That it's true

I think it's time
To finally understand
I need a different plan
I think I'm ready to

Turn the page
I'm looking for a better day
Memories
A myth to fade away

I know I tried
To hold on to this life
For such a long time
But that's over now

The past is gone
But I've been holding on
For such a long time
But that's over now
It's over now

All I have are memories
To remind me who I am
If everything were meant to be
There would be no need to pretend

Tell me why do I
Spend so much time
Thinking about the past
It all goes by so fast

I know I tried

To hold on to this life
For such a long time
But that's over now

The past is gone
But I've been holding on
For such a long time
But that's over now
It's over now
It's over now
It's over now

Its been such a long time
But that's over now
It's over now
The past is gone
And I've been holding on
For such a long time
But that's over now
It's over now
