

Maks Łapiński, Cold

I will always remember
Us looking at the sky
And I will remember
We couldn't find there any stars
But it didn't matter
Cause we knew it very well
We were shining
Like two little rising stars

I cannot sleep
There are too many things
On my mind
About you and I
What should I do
To be truly with you
When my heart
Is still so cold

I don't wanna be the best
I just wanna be myself
I just want to feel like a waterfall
