

Maldroid, He Said, She Said

She said;
These walls are just a prison, man,
A way to cage your mind

I said;
I don't think that you get it, ma'am,
I'm not here doing time!
You see this music is my canvas
And this guitar is my brush

She said;
The world is ever changing
While you're in here losing touch

And if you don't come then I'll go without you.
And if you don't come then I'll go without you.

Come on, come on
Letting life just pass you by
Come on, come on
You can bet you'll wonder why

She said;
Just stop and smell the roses; man,
You're missing out on life!

I said;
I've seen things that you can't believe,
This life won't pass me by.
And yeah, I think that I've got everything
I'm gonna need right here

She said;
If you don't get up off your ass,
I'm gonna disappear

And if you don't come then I'll go without you.
And if you don't come then I'll go without you.

Come on, come on
Letting life just pass you by
Come on, come on
You can bet you'll wonder why

Come on, come on
Letting life just pass you by
Come on, come on
Looking back you'll wonder why
