

Man, Daughter Of The Fireplace

I've been running up mountains and I've been painting the sky
I've been climbing up a chillum and teaching people how to fly
She's a daughter of the fireplace, she'll pick you up and throw you down

Well it doesn't really matter what I say or what I do
The only thing that matters is you are me and I am you
She's a daughter of the fireplace, she'll pick you up and throw you down

Well, I'm sittin' here in Munchen, wondering how I'm gonna cope
I'm rockin' here in Munchen somebody give me some dope
She's a daughter of the fireplace, she'll pick you up and throw you down
