

Man Overboard, Sidekick

Open your eyes kid
You know I'm on your side kid.
I'd like to save the world
and you could be my sidekick.

They'll all say our names.
As the words down on the paper answer yesterday's dreams.

I've lived a lie kid
I'd love to run and hide kid.
You could say fuck them all and ditch the world like I did.

They'll all say our names.
As the words down on the paper answer yesterday's dreams.

We could be untouchable.
