

Man, Taking The Easy Way Out Again

Taking your shoes away
Walking on broken glass
Taking up always fades
Hiding inside your carass
Waking you up at dawn
Washing in morning ice
Drinking a hero's wine
Seeing with stranger's eyes

You're the one who will get hurt
Just like I did at the start
When you're bored he'll never put you down
Why I know that you're the kind
Who won't ever care when I'm
A-runnin' round with everyone in town

Living too fast to see
Running with sister's feet
Talking too fast to hear
Feeding your body's greed
La la la la la la
Taking the easy way out
La la la la la la
Taking the easy way out

You're the one who will get hurt
Just like I did at the start
When you're bored he'll never put you down
Why I know that you're the kind
Who won't ever care when I'm
A-runnin' round with everyone in town
