

Mandalay, All My Sins

Taken that vow,
you know he's taken by now.

Upset you talked you
talked you all 'round,
in sympathy, girl.

Walk by the sea, forgive me all my sins.
Sift through my memory and find where I begin.
Lie in the warm sand, dig in my heels.
Cry for my dead child forget how that feels.
Closer to home.

He cuts you,
close to the bone.

He won't leave you
It's too far to crawl,
and everyone knows

Walk by the sea, forgive me all my sins.
Sift through my memory and find where I begin.
Lie in the warm sand, dig in my heels.
Cry for my dead child forget how that feels.

I can feel myself rising
I can feel myself rising

(walk by the sea, forgive me all my sins)

Walk by the sea, forgive me all my sins.
Sift through my memory and find where I begin.
Lie in the warm sand, dig in my heels.
Cry for my dead child forget how that feels.

Walk by the sea, forgive me all my sins.
Sift through my memory and find where I begin.
Lie in the warm sand, dig in my heels.
Cry for my dead child forget how that feels.
