

Mandalay, Opposites

Three, four, three, four ...
I want you now as then
Don't tell me you want to stay
Too much time now has passed
Too too soon nothing to do
I was only thinking I would do right
Now and then I need a little sting
I was only trying not to second guess
Why you came but
Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do
Play on my mind till I so tired I can'tt
I can't see when you go
I can't see when you go
Silencing me, telling me things
No reason I should stay
When you know what to say
To taunt me
Talk is cheap
That look of yours
Too too cold
Now the cause
Could you feel ( could you feel )
So ravaged and misunderstood
Everything cha, cha, chained
Nothing remains
So consider now
When it was easy
Knowing what you do and what you gave
I was silly knowing what was to be
My mistake but
Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do
Play on my mind till I sets hard I can't
I can't see when you go
I can't see when you go
Silence away, silence with things
No reason why should stay
When you know what to say
To talk me
That you will never see X6
That will never step on me
A sense of, since i left you
Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do
To talk me
