

Mandalay, This Life

(spoken: You couldn't even bring yourself..)

..to stay, oh no

You had to go

spoil it all.

I know you had to go.

Now I find these endlessly

colourblind days

to fill.

You never will

(Take this life)

Take this life,

take it all

in your hands.

You were mine,

I could smile

(spoken:You understand, fine)

again

I dream;

You come to me,

(Come back to me)

and comfort me.

Now I dream.

Where did this time go?

Where did this time go?

Did your love go?

I know,

you had to go

spoil it all,

and now I know.

You never will.

(Take this life)

Take this life,

take it all

in your hands.

You were mine,

I could smile

(spoken:You understand, fine)

(Take this life)

Take this life,

take it all

in your hands.

You were mine,

I could smile

(spoken:You understand, fine)

again

Just what you said was cold advice

I discovered sticks go with knives

I discovered I could've died in your chains

Still I feel, so won't you stay

Oh, babe

(Take this life)

Take this life,

take it all

in your hands.

You were mine,

I could smile

(spoken:You understand, fine)

(Take this life)

Take this life,

take it all

in your hands.

You were mine,

I could smile

again.
