Mandalay, Too Much Room

See love
She knows
Will leave her
See how it leaves her
Her love
Her love won't heal
She warned you
See how it feels now
She won't take up too much room
'Till you're sure
She loves you
I won't give up on your truth
'Till you're sure she loves you
She knows no truth
Or reason
See how it leaves her
It's too late to prove
Your heart lies
Her love is deeper
She won't take up too much room
'Till you're sure
She loves you
I won't give up on your truth
'Till you're sure she loves you
Any time you
Find me out
So many good reasons
Haven't I said enough
She knows no truth
Or reason
See how it leaves her
She won't take up too much room
'Till you're sure
She loves you
I won't give up on your truth
'Till you're sure she loves you
