

Mandaryna, Possesion

Look in my eyes and tell me what you see when you take a chance ev'ry man dreams of I give you all that I have got to give and more so much more baby just believe me take what you need to fulfill your fantasy I'll give you the world you better come with me however you want me just tell me you need me make it real
I'll be your possession whenever you call me I will be your baby that's the deal
I'll be your possession
However you want me...
Ev'ry day, ev'ry night, baby I will hold you tight in my arms, in my bed, I'll be yours always all my life, all the time, you are playing with my mind gimme joy, gimme pain, most of all - come with me... stay with me... be with me All of my life was waiting for the moment you come along show me the true meaning how it can feel to be the perfect woman how it can feel to lose yourself completely you are my life are the inspiration Give you my all you better come with me
However you want me...
Ev'ry day, ev'ry night...
