

Mandator, Black Rose

It was dark and I was waiting Some wolves were howling and it was full moon
Suddenly a total silence
I knew it had to happen soon
I was lonely out there waiting for my messenger
He was about to bring me the Black Rose I knew he would be coming soon 'cause thunderclouds were passing by and flashing lights were blinding my eyes There he stood in front of me
The men for whom I had been waiting long In his left hand the Black Rose
The most powerful flower Ancient words of evil times spoken by the messenger made this sacred flower shine bright I could feel it's magic touch It gave me strength, but far too much and then I felt it couldn't be right

[CHORUS]

The Black Rose, the Black Rose, the Black Rose
is coming out to get you
The Black Rose, the Black Rose, the Black Rose
is coming out to get you

[SOLO 1]

[repeat CHORUS]

The messenger, he spoke out his curse
The demons power, i felt it strong The Black Rose was credit to all this in the hands of a devils son
A terrible disaster had just begun
The Black Roses revenge was cruel
A new age began with this flower
This rose was a destructive tool
The sun was covered by clouds
The moon now forever shines
An evil century made it's entry
We'd better dig our graves, to die
