

Mandisa, Oh, My Lord (Featuring The Fisk Jubilee

I remember feeling like I was all alone
Couldn't ever give anybody else control
Heavy burdens always seemed to weigh me down
I called out, "save me now"
There You were to catch me when I couldn't stand
Cause I was falling, falling with no way to land
I'm amazed by Your everlasting love
Your strength lifted me up

Oh, my Lord, You gone and set me free
Oh, my Lord ain't nothing holding on me
Oh, my Lord it's a brand new day
Somebody raise your hands and sing, "Oh, my Lord"

Since I met You, I have been forever changed
Let the water rise, I don't have to be afraid
You know I'll praise You every season of my life
My Jesus, I'll testify

You saved me, forgave me, and now I believe
I belong to the King of kings
