

Mando Diao, Go Out Tonight

You and me, you and me
Will always find a salty sea
To clean our wounds and find our self esteem
It's you and me forever
Funeral, I hope my time will come when all is gone,
When all the violins play the saddest songs
My love for you will rise up and sing
I will go out tonight
Don't wanna waste my time
I feel I'm bound to fly
And I don't love you no more
I say I'm heading out
Don't wanna waste my pride
I will go out tonight
And I don't love you no more
So did I!
I recognize myself in all your lies
It doesn't matter what you say tonight
You guide me through our satire
Let's drink up for those who left us
Standing at the gates of dawn
And all the bastards leaving us without a cause
They'll trail us down and kill us
I will go out tonight
Don't wanna waste my time
I feel I'm bound to fly
And I don't love you no more
I say I'm heading out
Don't wanna waste my pride
I will go out tonight
And I don't love you no more
