

Mando Diao, The Malevolence

I shut the light cus it bugged my mind insane
She tried to hurt me in the puring summer rain
I cut her angle and attacked her heart with soul
It's in her skin the lack of sin, I know
She walks she talks she lives in the dark x3
She takes your hand in the jungle by the waterfall
When I'm weak she's in the best of moods
She's hanging out with all kinds of strangers with her broken shoes
She's well dressed and behaves like all the rest
She tends to try to unlock my cell but she'll never ever find my nest
There's no questions like it's understood
She walks she talks she lives in the dark x3
She takes your hand in the jungle by the waterfall
She walks she talks she lives in the dark x3
She takes your hand in the jungle by the waterfall
Oh yeah
She's not stron! Why? I don't give a damn! Fool!
She's with me, when I don't need the sex she's on her bed
How can I loose her when she's all that i ever got?
Behind her window there's a lover who I know I shot
Can you imagine what it's like to be all alone?
She walks she talks she lives in the dark x3
She takes your hand in the jungle by the waterfall
She walks
