

Mandragora Scream, A Whisper of Dew

Rainbow Seeker you can't see and I'm a slave about your dreams but now I feel my gloomy Prince I could give you my wings to him all nights a frozen darkness is melody Now our love will defy the flames and there is nothin' left to say 'cause I can feel your heart that beats I lay on you my ruby gaze you cloth my end...
Now we take our lost revenge and no one can breake our dreams embracing whispers into my wings we, forever... together...
I will give you all my nights Take my heart into your breeze embracin' whispers into my wings fireflies sailin' through dark waves my ruby castle waits for bliss...
Now our love will defy the flames never go beyond my life I can build a cradle of dew let our love live in tears so blind...
Take my heart into your breeze
fireflies sailin' through dark waves
I can build a cradle of dew
let our love live in tears so blind
