

Mandragora Scream, Bloody Ballade

I'll never die, I hold my blaze on storm witched whirl true ways are flowin' on leaden skies Deity and mist, that are that mirth behind my death while groans melt in whispers my hymns are thine
I'll be there- fight
in your eyes- light
through the dark- reign all your pain
In your mist- lost
with your wings- flight through your mind- rape all your dreams, all Lain' to lie, and right away, strugglin' through my veins
(Your heart...)
'till I bite thy neck again, this fall won't be sweet in vain Fallin' leaves, like tears comin' down from scary lights on thy pale lips like a diamonds cryin' I'll be there- fight
in your eyes- light
through the dark- reign
all your pain
In your mist- lost
through your mind- rape
all your dreams, all
Lain' to lie, and right away,
strugglin' through my veins
(Your heart...)
'till I bite thy neck again,
this fall won't be sweet in vain
Dyin' away from my life I get lost in thy Gloomy eyes that I'll never stray over and ever again (Bloody ballade)
I get lost in thy Bloody Ballade right away, strugglin' through my veins
Again, again...
