

Mandragora Scream, Child of the Moon

Believin' in your heart
bleedin' down in your soul...I die
now I rise again
for everytime I cried...
Here I am...
comin' from Star way
Now that I hold your light again...
I will stay awake and save our neverendin' love and spells....
Close youe eyes
and let me take you where you know
(heaven seems so strange)
In the Land of Spells
and magic dazzlin' light...
(I never saw this place)
And then
hold the love they couldn't take away before...
(never take before...)
from you
