

Mandragora Scream, Starquake

In a savourin' senses' worns lovin' the love of death you can take me away
with no life to nowhere
In my dark waitin' hell
in the land of the night shades
you can change my desires and my dark Fairy Tales Now I'm goin' to bounds of the reason of my life and its story of falls dreamin' my soothsayin'....
Down, now I'm fallin' in your mind...
Callin' , callin' visions in your head, it's so hard to be strong and standin' in your place call your faith....!
In a savourin' senses' worns
in the land of the Night Shades
you can change my desires
with no life to nowhere
in the land of the starquake... you can make all the Spells,,,, to reach your Lightin' Tales Now I'm walkin' across through the river of passion... ravin' down in your head your prayers
Down, now I'm fallin' in your mind...
Callin', callin' visions in your head,
and standin' in your place again... call your faith...!
Callin', callin' visions in your mind
It's so hard to be strong
callin'... callin'...
