Mandy Moore, Extraordinary

I was a daydream
Quiet and unseen
I lived in stories
But inside I kept a mystery
I was a starling
Nobody's darling
Flying in perfect circles
Just for company

And now I'm ready And now I'm ready And now I'm ready to be Extraordinary

A midnight airplane
A window glowing
I know I am another
Sparkle in the sky
I shine uncovered
Still undiscovered
But you might see me in the corner of your eye

And now I'm ready And now I'm ready And now I'm ready to be Extraordinary

Waking up to a week of Sundays I've got my own parade Stopping off at a sidewalk cafe Wind is playing in the trees Kicking up confetti leaves Seems as if it's all to say

And now I'm ready And now I'm ready And now I'm ready to be Extraordinary
