

Mandy Moore, I Could Break Your Heart Any Day

I'll make this painless.
Try to be sweet.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
Squeeze life out of you.
Wrap you in sheets.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.
I'll make you loving.
Thursday, Friday, Saturday.
Do not you disturb you.
Sunday rolls around- but that's another story.
It gets a little boring.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
I hold on to you.
You hold on me
I could break your heart any day of the week.
Let the walls talk.
Let the four walls creek.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
Those calendar girls-- they got nothing of me.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.
I'll make you loving.
Thursday, Friday, Saturday.
Do not you disturb you.
Sunday rolls around- but that's another story.
It gets a little boring.
Yeah-yeah.
Yeah-yeah.
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.
I'll make you loving.
Thursday, Friday, Saturday.
Do not you disturb you.
Sunday rolls around- but that's another story.
It gets a little boring.
I could turn you on.
I could turn the other cheek.
And it would break your heart any day of the week.
And it would break your heart any day of the week.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
I could break your heart any day of the week.
