Mandy Moore, It's Christmas

I'm not supposed to feel this way
We're closing in on Christmas day
When the world is upside down, we're gonna make it through somehow
Don't you worry, we'll be fine
Snow will fall and stars will shine even in the worst of times
It's Chrismas for the ones you leave behind

The colours of our country still Your mother's hands and father's will Even if we're half awake, they cannot take our heros away

Don't you worry, we'll be fine Snow will fall and stars will shine even in the worst of times It's Chrismas for, for the ones you leave behind

(Behind, behind, behind...)

Oh... yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah

Don't you worry, we'll be fine Snow will fall and stars will shine I'm praying for the ordinary Everybody needs to carry Everybody, have a merry Chrismas from the ones you leave behind

(Behind, behind...)

Merry Christmas...
