

Mandy Moore, New Direction

it seems to me, i cannot breathe when youre around you leave me there, in the cold of lost and found

Ive been lookin for a new direction Ive been looking for a new connection need someone whos gonna make me stay chorus

you shouldnt have lied, you shouldnt have played not the kinda girl to look the other way you shouldnt have cried, you shouldnt have faked gotta tell you straight before i walk away its too late needed to rediscover my identity im doin fine, baby dont feel sad for me

hook ive been lookin for a new fixation someone who can stimulate my mind ive been lookin for a new sensation another love you kno im gonna find

needed to redescover my identity

chorus

ive been looking for a new fixation
