Mandy Moore, Quit Breakin' My Heart

you were my first slow dance thought that we had a chance but together was too hard for you hanging out with your friends and my exceptance sees all i need is for you to be true

i know you care
but it's just not there when you're not around
i want you there

and you need to stop
breaking my heart

quit breaking my heart
it's tearing apart
all i need is for you to be true (you to be true)
quit breaking my heart
it's tearing us apart (ohh)
baby (oh yeah)

baby i don't feel this way 'bout everyone something about you boy nothing seems to be quite like this holding your hand touching my face standing here waiting for our first kiss

and you need to stop

it's tearing apart
all i need is for you to be true (all i need) quit breaking my heart (ohh quit breaking my heart) it's tearing us apart (tearing us apart)
baby (oh yeah)

ohh

i know you care

you need to stop
ohhh breaking my heart

it's tearing apart (tearing us apart)
quit breaking my heart (oh quit breaking my heart)
it's tearing apart
all i need is for you to be true
