

Manfred Mann's Earth Band, Wherever Love Drops

I was walking auf der Heide
Got into some boggy parts
Squelch squelch
Fell into some footprints
Couldn't get out
But you never know "wo die Liebe hinflit";
Wherever love drops it drops
Looking up I see this foot coming down
And from very high up a voice says
"Would you like my leg to climb up?";
My eye travels up this very well built leg
Listen to what happens next
And up a very short skirt
And I think "wo die Liebe hinflit";
Wherever love drops it drops
Up, I climb up
I climb up
I climb up
