Manic Street Preachers, I'm Just A Patsy

I am just a patsy The Oswald in Lee Harvey Made of my own misery The footprints of history

I am just a patsy I sell vague conspiracy I'm slow and I'm easy And I'm waiting for delivery

I'm just a patsy for your love I need an angel from above To a life depraved and lost Inevitable like scars and dust I'm just a patsy for your love

Even with the most control Tied to fragments born and grown All fucked up with nowhere to go The best thing I ever saw

I am just a patsy I sell vague conspiracy I'm slow and I'm easy And I'm waiting for delivery

I'm just a patsy for your love I need an angel from above To a life depraved and lost Inevitable like scars and dust I'm just a patsy for your love, love, love A patsy for your love, love

I am just a patsy

I'm just a patsy for your love I need an angel from above To a life depraved and lost Inevitable like scars and dust I'm just a patsy for your love
