I've been walking around all day, thinking I think I have a problem I think I think too much I've been taught to hold back my tears and avoid them but you've made pain into something I could touch I've been walking around all day, laughing Think I'd be better off without And I bet you are sweet and hard to get over so I'll cry and peoble will stop and stare now that's ok, let them stop and stare... I am fragile I am hopeless I am not perfect but I am free... I've been walking aorund all day, waiting and waiting is all I seem to do cause I never get it unless I'm fed it but this time I'll just have to yeah this time I'll just have to... Say you're not around... am I finished? If you're not around that's too bad Hope you're safe and sound, not alone now 'cause you know I believe in you...
