

Marbleheads, When he kisses you

I'm letting you go
Don't love you no more
Just want you to know
It's out of control
I'm letting you go
Don't love you no more
Just want you to know
It's out of control
God if I could close my eyes if only for tonight there must be some kind of way to escape this situation a heart broken nation and endless miles of temptation broken promises laced with fear, manipulation i feel so betrayed so full of rage i gave you everything i possible could my ego
my pride
my love my suicide
my feelings pushed aside
i was left her to die
im losing my mind
im losing track of time im falling behind passed the lines of reason When he kisses you on the neck do you think of me I used to make you scream when he's holding you the way I used to Do you know how it's making me burn inside?
When he's deep inside of you does he look at you, the way I used to?
the way I still do
I'm letting you go
Just want you to know
It's out of control
I'm letting you go
Just want you to know
It's out of control
I'm tired of knowing I'm living a lie
if you don't want me then just push me aside I'm tired of not knowing the truth from the lies
if you don't want me then just push me aside...
gently....
I'm letting you go
It's out of control
I'm letting you go
