

Marc Almond, End In Tears

You know it in your heart
Do I really need to say
Although we try again
It always ends
The same way
Ends in tears
Ends in tears
You know it always ends in tears
Oh it always ends in tears
No matter how we laugh
How close we grow
Day by day
Although we've learned to love
It always ends
The same way
Ends in tears
Ends in tears
You know it always
Ends in tears
It always ends in tears
It always ends in tears
It always ends in tears
It always ends in tears
I'm not really
What you want
No matter how hard I try
I'll never been enough for you
So it always ends in goodbye
But whatever
You know
I'll always love you
Until the next time...
