

Marc Almond, Glorious

I heard a story
That no one told
A revelation
To behold
It gave me answers
It showed me the way
It made me stronger
Every day
It allayed the fear
It could happen here
Oh it only love
That moves us on Feelings
Wider than the sky
Surround me on all sides
Gently floating down
In a symphony of sound
That wakes me every day
Urging me to pray
The story's told at last
A doubting past
Has gone away
I heard a story
Again retold
A revelation
Glorious
I had the answers
I found the way
I was feeling stronger
Glorious
So don you fear
It can happen here
Oh it only love
Moving us on
Feelings
Wider than the sky
Surround me on all sides
Gently floating down
In a symphony of sound
That wakes me every day
Urging me to pray
The stories told at last
A doubting past
Has gone away
Glorious
Glorious
Feelings
Wider than the sky
Surround me on all sides
Gently floating down
In a symphony of sound
That wakes me every day
Urging me to pray
The stories told at last
A doubting past
Has gone away
Glorious
