

Marc Almond, Loveless World

Hello lover
Come in from the cold
Safe and sound from the loveless world
(at) times like these it can get too much
Selfish hearts
And kisses that barely touch
Cruel life
Just green and grief
To help a lover what's your belief
Is it all as you've been told?
There's no joy in a loveless world

No joy in a loveless world
Girl kills boy
And boy kills girl
Someone stole all the love today
Locked it up
Threw the key away

Tears are here to stay

Hello baby
You look so young
Uncorrupted smile
And your eyes shine wide
Vampire comes and he wants your blood
Young blood and your tender love
Cruel life
Just trick and take
Surely as your heart will break
Is it all as you've been told?
There's no joy in a loveless world

No joy in a loveless world
Girl kills boy
And boy kills girl
Someone stole all the love today
Locked it up
Threw the key away
No joy

Tears are here to stay

No joy in a loveless world
No joy in a loveless world
No joy in a loveless world

No joy in a loveless world

You've been hurt
Now you can cry
You been hurt
And so have i
The hurt you feel
Is the hurt you'll give
So make a stand the life
Its time to live
Cruel life
Don't let it win
You've found some love
Now let it in
Its not all as you've been told
There's some joy in a loveless world

No joy in a loveless world
Girl kills boy
And boy kills girl
Locked it up
Threw the key away
No joy

No joy in a loveless world
Girl kills boy
And boy kills girl
Locked it up
Threw the key away
No joy

No joy in a loveless world
Girl kills boy
And boy kills girl
Someone stole all the love away
But me and you've found the key today

Tears aren't going to stay

No joy in a loveless world
