

Marc Almond, Open All Night

Don't reject me
Don't send me away
Don't ever let me down
Be my torch
And burn for me
I need a little of your starlight
There's a black hole in my soul
Eating all the love
A demon in my heart
Who'll never get enough
So unlock your soul
And turn on your neon light
Keep your heart
Open all night
Open all night
I'm with the lost
Leading the lonely
Whose for another tortured soul
Be the saint
To whom I pray
To make me whole
Be the shoulder where I cry
A bed for me to die
And angel come to save me
The only one who ever forgave me
So unlock your soul
And turn on your neon light
Keep your heart
Open all night
Open all night
Turn on the neon
That you call your heart
Short stay
For rent
Until I depart
Always a vacancy
Safe and warm
Always a port in a storm
There's a black hole in my soul
Eating all the love
A demon in my heart
Who'll never get enough
So unlock your soul
And turn on your neon light
Keep your heart
Open all night
Open all night
'Cause I'm an
Erotic neurotic
I need a little antibiotic
Cause I've got
A sickness in my soul
Give me a moment
Of dedication
A few little prayers
And some medication
Stay open all night
Soul for sale
Heart for rent
Open all night
Open all night
Keep your heart
Open all night
