

Marc Bolan, Highway Knees

She could have layed, could have stayed, on the highway,
I could have loved her, O yes I could.
Her children stayed, could have played, on the highway,
I could have known them. O yes I could.

On my knees I'm Begging please uh huh.

She could have layed, could have stayed, on the highway.
I could have loved her, O yes I could.

On my knees I'm begging please uh huh,
On my knees I'm begging please uh huh,
On my knees I'm begging please uh huh.
