

Marc Bolan, Hippy Gumbo

Met a man he was nice said his name was paradise Didn't realise at the time that his face and mind were mine Hippy Gumbo he's no good
Chop him up for firewood
It seemed good and it seemed right that I should dig him on the night but in the morning with the sun he pulled an automatic gun He blew my soul, he blew my brain he said I could not do the same Hippy Gumbo he's no good
Chop him up for firewood
Hippy Gumbo he's no good Chop him up and burn the wood.
