

MARC COHN, Dig Down Deep

Baby let's go below the surface and see what we can find, there's no reason to be nervous cause it happens all the time i dont wanna go up to the mountain, i dont need to go down tot the sea I'm gonna sit right here till we unravel this mystery while the lights of the city are shinin below, i wanna hold on to you girl and never let go while everyone else is just walkin around in there sleep... baby let's dig down..dig down deep, i wanna dig down deep...la la la i dont wanna wait until tomarow cause the fortune said that the time is now its time to find out what we're doin... what we're doin anyhow lets get out in the moonlight and walk for a while maybe stay up all night and talk the talk for a while baby kick off your shoes cause you got nothin to lose but your sleep baby lets dig down , dig , down deep..i wanna dig down deep could you dig down deep its an open invitation so baby dont you cry its a life long celebration i think we're right on time its a feelin in your heart lump in your throat its a strange and lovely ride wanna dig down deep inside la la la la lal la
while the lights of the city are shinin below wanna hold onto you girl and never let go
baby lets dig down...dig down deep i wanna dig down deep could ya dig down deep i wanna dig down deep...yeah la la la..oh woh oh
