

Marc Terenzi, Can't breathe without you

I've been around the whole damn world
Somewhere along the way I lost my girl
I've been to places you've never seen
And now I need a little rest
And I'm not sure if I can keep going by myself
My heart is breaking on down
Minute after minute I'm losing ground
Take me and hold me once again
Just like you used to
Crazy-It's crazy as hell
I don't even know what to do with myself
Cause it don't matter what I do
I can't breathe without you
It seems like only yesterday
I still remember all the little games we played
I couldn't picture us apart
No no no
And we were put together right from the start
So babygirl-what have we done?
Please tell me
Is this what happens when you love someone?
My heart is breaking on down
Minute after minute I'm losing ground
Take me and hold me once again
Just like you used to
Crazy-It's crazy as hell
I don't even know what to do with myself
Cause it don't matter what I do
I can't breathe without you
Everything I do just seems so senseless
I feel helpless
With every move I make I'm moving
More miles away from you
And every night the dream of you is returning
And I'm burning
To hold you in my arms again
And keep you 'til the very end
My heart is breaking on down
Minute after minute I'm losing ground
Take me and hold me once again
Just like you used to
Crazy-It's crazy as hell
I don't even know what to do with myself
Cause it don't matter what I do
I can't breathe without you
I can't breathe without you
I can't breathe without you
I can't breathe without you
