Marduk, With Satan And Victorious Weapons

Fist in the face for the time smothered angel By Satan my scythe will shallow every hallow Open now dear blood soaked soil By Satan I pour magma down throat. Come ghostfaced hungry shadows of shadows By Satan I drink the darkness they drewl With victorious weapons I will melt every angels wings Triumph of the will striking Striking to kill Cloak the earth with a thousand nights And a billion dead We toast and drink from and chalice Filled with shreds of life And know my eyes are knifes To shred every fucking stream Of Christian light
