

Maren Morris, Humble Quest

Haven't looked up in a while
Been biting my tongue behind a smile
Falling on swords that I can't see
Poison my well on the daily
Got easier not to ask
Just kept hitting my head on the glass
I was so nice 'til I woke up
I was polite 'til I spoke up
I'm on a humble quest
And damn, I do my best
Not gonna hold my breath
'Cause I still haven't found it yet
No, I still haven't found it yet
The line between fulfilled and full of myself
I'm trying to find it and I might need some help
Standing up was enough of a battle
How do I not cast a shadow?
I'm a hell of a hassle
I'm on a humble quest
And damn, I do my best
Not gonna hold my breath
'Cause I still haven't found it yet
No, I still haven't found it yet
I'm on a, I'm on a, I'm on a humble quest
I'm on a, I'm on a, I'm on a humble quest
Not gonna hold my breath
I'm on a humble quest
And damn, I do my best
Not gonna hold my breath
'Cause I still haven't found it yet, oh
I'm on a humble quest
And damn, I do my best
Not gonna hold my breath
'Cause I still haven't found it yet
No, I still haven't found it yet
