

Margaret Glaspy, Hammer And The Nail

Sometimes I hit the ground running
Barefoot on hot coals
I'll take the blood off your hands
And be the only one who knows

Yes at my own expense I'll fail
Here I am the hammer and the nail

Sometimes I strike out when I know how
To hit the home run
I'll swallow all your sorrow
So you can have more fun

It's my wedding but you want the veil
Here I am the hammer and the nail

Oooh
This goddamn song
Is so true
I can hardly sing along

I know that you like to make me happy
So I'll stay a little sad
Between a rock and a hard place
I'll be your little pad

Yes I'll set my needs to sail
Here I am the hammer and the nail

Here I am the hammer and the nail
