

Margaret Glaspy, My Eyes

My mind can only make sense of so much
You have never been so out touch
Hold me like you wish I wasn't going to leave
Not like you know I'll stay
Either way

Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright
Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright

How I wish I could disappear pain
Because your tears fall like the hardest rain
Flooding every room and garden
We have gone starving to make
I won't let that be the case

Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright
Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright

Oh every conversation between strangers or acquaintances
Only reminds me of how radiant your patience is

Look into my eyes

Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright
Look into my eyes
We're gonna be alright
Look into my eyes
