

Mari, Ugly Betty

Ugly Betty open up your eyes
Today is gonna be a perfect day
Ugly Betty, what about that smile
The kind that makes the coldest heart melt
Oh how you bloom, under sunshine
What you are is beautiful
Far beyond what the others see
What you are is beautiful
Defined by love and the kindest soul
You're beautiful, Betty you're beautiful
Betty, you're beautiful, Betty you're beautiful
Ugly Betty, so what's it gonna be
Will you stand up for yourself or will you leave
Ugly Betty, the stars align for you
The rest is up to what you make or do with it
And how you bloom under sunshine
What you are is beautiful
Far beyond what the eye can see
What you are is beautiful
Defined by love and the kindest soul
You're beautiful, Betty you're beautiful
Betty you're beautiful, Betty you're beautiful
Ugly Betty open up your eyes
Today is gonna be a perfect day
