

Maria Haukaas Storeng, I'm out

You woke up from a daydream when I slammed the door
I'd given all I got but still you wanted more
Too late to turn when all your bridges burn
How does it feel, this time it's for real
I'm out of breath - I'm out of faith - I'm out of time
I'm out of words - I'm out of answers I can't find
I'm letting go - I can't hold on no more
I'm out of breath - I'm out of reasons to go on
Held on for so long 'til I finally hit the wall
You kept on living like nothing was wrong at all
You disappear - when times get tough
You're never here - and now I've had enough
I'm out of breath - I'm out of faith - I'm out of time
I'm out of words - I'm out of answers I can't find
I'm letting go - I can't hold on no more
I'm out of breath - I'm out of reasons to go on
So when I think about it I'm probably better off alone
Yeah there's no doubt about it I'm better off here on my own
You woke up from a daydream when I slammed the door
I'd given all I got but still you wanted more
I'm out of breath - I'm out of faith - I'm out of time
I'm out of words - I'm out of answers I can't find
I'm letting go - I can't hold on no more
I'm out of breath - I'm out of reasons to go on
