

Maria, I Give, You Take-My Soul

If you cut, I will bleed
Bring me down to my knees
Make me feel what I am is never good enough
Can you help me understand
Thought I made you a better man
Guess somehow another way things just change

B-Sect

It seems just like a distant memory
That you used to be good for me
But (baby) now it's clear

Chorus

I give, you take
Somehow it's gonna break
I pray for the strength
I hate to say I know it can't go on this way
I give, you take
I know we're gonna break
And it hurts my soul
I hate to say we can't go on this way

With your words, you pull me in
I always lose I just can't win
And though I see, my heart is blind it gives in every time
You got me on constant repeat
I need a cure or a remedy
'Cause if I stay there won't be nothing left for me

B-Sect

Chorus

Now there's nothing left for us to save
And only bitterness remains
What we have is like a house of cards
And it's falling apart
Now it's impossible to get it back
With the bridges that you've burned
I guess it's time to walk away
'Cause now it's so clear
