

Maria, Intoxicated

Temporarily, I lost my mind, but it feels alright
When you're here with me, I get so high
I taste you on my lips, and you begin, to get under my skin
You know I can't resist, letting you in

Right where I wanna be
With you inside of me
And I can't hardly breathe

'Cause you're so intoxicating, I'm loving everything you do
Constantly you've got me craving, I can't get enough of you
'Cause you're so intoxicating, I'm loving everything you do
Constantly you've got me craving, just another hit of you

I'm surrendering, and you can tell that I'm about to melt
Better than a dream, I lost myself, now I'm in so deep like a breeze
You come over me, if I had the strength to speak
I'd whisper to you softly, that I'm

Feels like I'm falling from the sky
But when I am with you, I can fly
And in that moment, it happens again
Don't know where you end and I begin
