

Maria McKee, To Miss Someone

I've been keeping busy since we've said goodbye
But all I do is think about you
The days are quick, the nights are long
I feel them tick, I watch them crawl
I'm petrified of running out of things to do
'Though I've never really been in love
I know now what it means
To miss someone

I have not been winning since we've said goodbye
Nothing fits and everything feels wrong
I guess it's useless to deny it
I'll admit that I've been crying
Guess I'm not so independent after all
'Though I've never really been in love
I know now what it means
To miss someone

Sometimes I dream we find each other in the night
And pass each other by
But part of me is running through every vein
Inside of you
I know where you're going I know where you've been
I know everything about you
The walls inside my head will shake
The very second that you break
I'd sell my soul to keep yours at my heel
'Though I've never really been in love
I know now how it feels
To miss someone
